

The FCC shouldn't implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law protections. It has greatly improved unwanted calls from telemarketers and increased my privacy time at home.